

ISP firms that wish to purchase access from the big companies should be allowed to do so. This stimulates competition and benefits all consumers, especially the low-income ones like me.
PLEASE do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.